POLISH LEGION OF AMERICAN VETERANS, U.S.A.
NATIONAL CONSTITUTION

As a living monument to over 3,000,000 Americans of Polish descent who served in the Armed Forces of the U.S.A. in all Wars and Conflicts of whom many thousands have made the supreme sacrifice for their country by giving their lives, we the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. associate ourselves for the following purposes:

To uphold and defend the Constitution of the United States of America and all for which it stands:

To encourage active interest by our fellow countrymen in all demonstrations of American and patriotic causes:

To protect the good name of Americans against all unfriendly attacks:

To insure that all Americans shall receive the positive support due all Americans regardless of ancestry:

To combat all alien influences endeavoring to weaken or destroy our American Institutions and form of government:

To encourage all Americans to combat all undesirable acts against our government be it crime or terrorism:

And to maintain and preserve the true spirit of comradeship that arose from the sacrifices in all wars and conflicts of the United States of America, providing friendship and mutual aid to all Americans especially in patriotic, charitable, educational, and civic activities.

CONSTITUTION
POLISH LEGION OF AMERICAN VETERANS,U.S.A.

ARTICLE I NAME OF ORGANIZATION

ARTICLE II
MEMBERSHIP

Sec. 1. Par. 1. Any American Citizen who has served in the Armed Forces of the United States, or, in its Auxiliary Units, after May 9, 1916, or thereafter, and whose service shall have been terminated by an Honorable Discharge, or, an honorable release from active duty, and, also, any American Citizen who is recognized as a Veteran by the U.S. Congress, the U.S. Department of Defense and/or the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs, shall be eligible for membership in the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

Sec.1. Par. 2. Career and Active Members of the Armed Forces of the United States shall be eligible for membership in the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., provided, however, that their service in their respective branch of service is, at all times, in keeping with the Uniform Code of Military Justice, of the United States.

Sec. 1. Par. 3. Any individual who is an active member or former member of the National Guard or other United States Armed Forces Reserve Units, and have proof of such service, and whose service has been terminated by an honorable discharge or honorable release from such service shall be eligible for membership in the Polish Legion of American Veterans, USA.

Sec. 1. Par. 4. American Citizens, who have provided military related service to the United States, and, have proof of such service, via certification by an honorable discharge, issued by the Secretary of Defense, shall be eligible for membership in the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

- b. The members of the Governor's Cabinet and State Legislative Body, by vote of the State Executive Committee within such State.
- c. Persons performing outstanding service in the State or to veterans in the State may be given Honorary Membership by vote of the State Executive Committee within such State.
- d. An appropriate Honorary Membership Card shall be issued on an annual basis recognizing such person as an Honorary Member of the Organization.

Sec. 2. Par. 6. The right to attend, to vote or the right of expression at any regular or special meeting or session of any Convention of any echelon within the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., shall be exclusively limited to active, regular members, excepting, however, guests or public officials may, on proper invitation, appear at meetings or Conventions to address such groups.

Sec. 3. Par. 1. No person shall be a member of more than one Post at any one time.

Sec. 3. Par. 2. Any member in good standing may transfer from one Post to another, providing, said member obtain approval from the new Post to which they plan to transfer. Such member shall not be eligible for any elective office or for the privilege of representing the transferee Post at the State or National Conventions for a period of three (3) months from the date of transfer.

Sec. 3. Par. 3. Newly admitted members shall not be eligible for any elective office or for the privilege of representing the Post at the State or National Conventions for a period of six months from the date of admission, but otherwise shall have the same rights and privileges as other members, provided, however, that this provision shall not be applicable to the newly organized Posts during the first year of their existence.

Sec. 4. All duly assessed dues shall be payable annually by every member of Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., provided, however, that Honorary Members shall not be required to pay any dues.

Sec. 5. Par. 1. The National Department shall maintain a Membership-at-Large Post, which shall be administered as herein provided.

Sec. 5. Par. 2. Membership of the Membership-at-Large Post shall be restricted to veterans who desire a membership in the P.L.A.V., U.S.A. and who reside in States where no State Departments and/or Posts exists.

Sec. 5. Par. 3. The prospective new members to the Membership-at-Large Post must have been sponsored by an active member of the P.L.A.V., U.S.A. and must submit a photo-static copy of their honorable discharge or separation from service to the National Adjutant.

Sec. 5. Par. 4. Annual dues to the National Membership-at-Large Post shall be established at a National Convention and shall be paid directly to the National Department.

Sec. 5. Par. 5. Such portion of dues of the Membership-at-Large Post in excess of the annual per capita due to the National Department, shall be maintained in a separate fund and expended solely for the purpose of establishing new Posts in States where no P.L.A.V., U.S.A. Posts exist.

Sec. 6. Par. 1. A State Department may, at its discretion, establish one (1) Membership-at-Large Post within the legal boundaries of its State. This Post shall be administered by the State Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. Par. 2. Membership in the State Department Membership-at-Large Post shall be restricted to eligible veterans desiring membership in the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., residing in the State, but living in Counties where no Post or Posts presently exist.

Sec. 6. Par. 3. Prospective members of the State Department Membership-at-Large Post shall be sponsored by an active member of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., and must submit a photo-static copy of their honorable discharge or honorable release from active duty to the State Adjutant or to the officer designated by said State Department prior to being accepted and granted membership.

Sec. 6. Par. 4. Dues to the State Department Membership-at-Large Post shall be determined by the State Convention, provided, however, that the amount of annual dues which shall be due to the National Department for each member shall not in any manner be affected by the decision of the State Convention or the State Department.

Sec. 6. Par. 5. The State Department Membership-at-Large Post shall be bound by all existing provisions of this National Constitution and its By-Laws as relating to local Posts, excepting those provided for in this ARTICLE.

ARTICLE III ORGANIZATION

Sec. 1. The Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., shall be organized with a National Department, Zones, State Departments, and under these Departments, local Posts.

Sec. 2. The National Department shall be composed of officers, hereinafter, described, Directors, and such other members as the National Convention may specify.

Sec. 3. For administrative purposes there shall be three (3) Zones, as follows:

Zone I: Shall be comprised of all States east of the Ohio River and the Appalachian Mountains and the center time zone and shall include the State of Pennsylvania and North and Southern boundaries shall be from the Canadian border to the Gulf of Mexico.

Zone II: Shall be made up of all States east of the Mississippi and Ohio Rivers and shall include the States of Michigan, Indiana and Ohio, to the Gulf of Mexico and all States west of the Appalachian Mountains in the Central Time Zone.

Zone III: Shall include Wisconsin, Illinois and all States west of the Mississippi River between Canada and Mexico.

Sec. 4. The State Department shall be composed of officers elected at the State Convention and representatives selected by the Posts under its jurisdiction.

Sec. 5. Local Posts shall be chartered by the National Department and administered by the State Department, but shall be governed locally by their own officers chosen according to their Constitution and By-Laws.

ARTICLE IV NATIONAL CONVENTION

Sec. 1. A National Convention shall be held biennially (every two years) at a time and place determined by the Convention held no less than two years previously and shall constitute the supreme legislative body of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. The decisions and the enactment of the National Convention within the scope of this Constitution and By-Laws shall be the highest authority in the organization and shall be binding on all members. The National Convention shall, also, constitute the highest judicial tribunal over the controversies of serious nature that may arise within the organization.

Sec. 2. The members of the Convention shall consist of the following, to-wit:

- a. Delegates elected by the individual Posts. All Posts shall be entitled to representation in proportion to their membership. Each delegate or his duly qualified alternate shall have the right to vote.
- b. Past National Commanders, by virtue of their past high office, shall have the privilege of being delegates to all National Conventions with the right to vote.

- c. All elective National Officers and the appointed National Executive Officers, as listed in Sec. 3. Par. 1., A., of Article V, of this Constitution, by virtue of their offices shall be delegates to the National Convention, with the right of voice and vote
- d. All appointed National Operations Officers, as covered in Sec.3. Par. 1., B., Sec. 3. Par. 2., and, Sec. 3. Par. 3. of Article V, of this Constitution, may, of their own volition, attend the National Convention, provided, however, they shall have a voice, but no vote, unless they are elected delegates from their respective Posts. In addition, they shall not be entitled to any remuneration of expenses for travel and lodging unless specifically being directed to attend said National Convention at the invitation of the National Commander or the National Executive Committee.
- e. Retiring State Commanders, by virtue of this past office, shall have the privilege of being delegates, with the right to vote, to the National Convention immediately following their term of office, excepting, however, where a State Department has a Biennial State Convention, then in that event the State Commander in office at the time of the National Convention shall be a delegate to the National Convention and with a right of vote.

Sec. 3. A majority of delegates entitled to vote shall constitute a quorum.

Sec. 4. A Special National Convention shall be called by the National Department upon written request of two-thirds (2/3) of all Posts. Time and place of the Special Convention shall be decided by the Posts by means of referendum. Duly elected delegates to the last regular Convention or their duly elected substitutes and all others enumerated in Section 2, above, shall constitute the membership of the Special Convention. Special Convention shall be called only on matters of extreme importance and only the matters for which the Special Convention is called shall be considered at such a Convention.

Sec. 5. Par. 1. No delegate of an accredited Post or Department shall be seated at the National Convention unless his respective Post or Department shall be fully paid up in all its accounts with the National Department and its accounts and membership shall be certified as of 30 days prior to the opening date of the National Convention. No Post or Department delegate or alternate shall be permitted to register as such delegate or alternate without a membership card or other satisfactory evidence identifying him as a member of the Post or Department from which he is registering.

Sec. 5. Par. 2. Mandates for Convention delegates may be forwarded directly to Posts by the National Department. In turn, mandates will be forwarded to their respective State Departments for certification of the current fiscal year. Mandates shall then be forwarded to the National Department. Delegate mandates shall not be deem valid at the National Convention, nor the delegate seated at the National Convention, unless such mandate shall bear certification of his State Department Finance Officer.

Sec. 6. Par. 1. The Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. recognizes a subsidiary organization known as the National Convention Corporation of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

Sec. 6. Par. 2. The National Convention Corporation shall be governed by a Code of Regulations, which shall be enacted for it by the National Convention.

Sec. 6. Par. 3. Authority is hereby given to the State Departments to authorize and create subsidiary organizations of similar scope and nature of State Department Conventions

- b. National Membership Deputy Director, with the advice and consent of the National Membership Director.

Sec. 3. Par. 2. The National Commander may, at his discretion, subject to concurrence of the National Executive Committee, appoint the following National Operating Officers, to wit:

- a. National Chaplain, who shall be a Clergyman of any faith.
- b. National Sergeant-at-Arms

Sec. 3. Par. 3. The National Commander, subject to concurrence by the National Executive Committee, shall, by appointment, fill the following position, which shall not be considered to be a National Officer, per say, to wit:

- a. National V.A.V.S. Deputy Director, duties delegated to the office of the National Service Director.
- b. National Archives Director

Sec. 3. Par. 4. The National Department (National Executive Committee) shall control and administer the selection of the National Adjutant whose term in office shall be deemed permanent as provided in the National Department Standing Rules.

Sec. 4. Par. 1. The term of office of all National Elective Officers shall commence immediately upon adjournment of the National Convention and shall continue until new officers are elected and qualified at the next regular National Convention.

Sec. 4. Par. 2. Directors of the National Convention Corporation shall assume the duties of their office at the first National Executive Committee meeting following the convention at which they were elected.

Sec. 4. Par. 3. The term of Appointive Officers shall commence upon the concurrence of appointments by the National Executive Committee and will continue until removed from office for cause or new officers appointed by a new incoming administration.

Sec. 4. Par. 4. All Elected and Appointed National Officers shall render an oral report of their activities when present at an N.E.C. Meeting. They shall have prepared said report in writing prior to such N.E.C. Meeting with sufficient copies for distribution to the National Adjutant and the National P.L.A.V., U.S.A. News Editor. Should an Elected or Appointed National Officer be unable to be present at an N.E.C. Meeting, or not invited, they shall provide the National Adjutant with two copies of a written report not less than twenty (20) days prior to the schedule date of that meeting.

Sec. 4. Par. 5. Should an Elected or Appointed National Officer be forced to cancel plans to be present at an N.E.C. Meeting due to unforeseen circumstances, they shall submit a written report to the National Adjutant not more than ten (10) days following the date of said meeting.

Sec. 5. Any National Officer may receive compensation for their activities on behalf of the organization. The amount of such compensation may be determined at the National Convention or, in absence thereof to be determined by the National Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. CHAPLAINS: Any State Department or Post may appoint a non-veteran, who shall be a Clergyman, of any faith, to serve as its Chaplain. Said Chaplain shall be an Honorary Member of said State Department or Post.

ARTICLE VI NATIONAL DEPARTMENT

Sec. 1. The administrative power between National Conventions shall be vested in the National Executive Committee, which shall constitute and be known as the National Department.

Sec. 2. Par. 1. The National Department shall be composed of the elective National Officers; the appointed National Executive Officers. The National Directors (State Commanders); Past National Commanders; and, such other members, if any, as the National Convention shall specify, all of whom, shall have the right of voice and vote on all matters coming before that body.

Sec. 2. Par. 2. The appointed National Operations Officers, may, of their own volition, attend National Executive Committee Meetings, and, when present, shall have both voice and vote on all matters coming before that body, provided, however, they shall not be eligible for any remuneration of expenses for travel and lodging unless specifically, directed or invited to attend said N.E.C. Meeting or Meetings by the National Convention, the National Commander or the National Executive Committee.

Sec. 3. The National Commander shall preside over National Conventions and the National Executive Committee Meetings, but, shall vote only in the event of a tie, excepting, however, Said Officer may vote in the secret ballot elections of the National Officers, held at the National Convention or at an N.E.C. Meeting.

Sec. 4. The National Department shall be the official representative of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

Sec. 5. It shall be the duty of the National Department to advance the cause of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., carry out its aims and purposes and carry out the national policies and plans of the entire organization, as established by the National Convention.

Sec. 6. The National Executive Committee shall meet two (2) times during the interval between National Conventions and on call of the National Commander whenever he deems such as necessary.

Sec. 6. Par. 1. When determining a site for an N.E.C. Meeting, the National Commander shall choose the site for the next N.E.C. meeting on a rotating basis so that no undue preference is shown to any particular State Department.

Sec. 6. Par. 2. Where in the judgement of the National Commander and confirmed by the N.E.C., the rotation may be suspended, for good cause shown

ARTICLE VII STATE DEPARTMENTS

Sec. 1. The State Departments shall be chartered by the National Department in accordance with provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. It shall be the duty of State Departments to aid in organization and maintenance of local Posts and to carry out the policies and plans delegated to it by the National Department, and to adhere to the provisions of this Constitution and By-Laws and decisions of the National Convention.

Sec. 2. State Executive Committee shall be composed of such elective officers and elective representatives of local Posts under its jurisdiction as shall be provided for in the Constitution and By-Laws of the individual State Departments. The Executive Committee shall be the administrative body of the Department and shall be known as State Department of that particular State.

Sec. 3. The Elective Officers of the State Department shall be elected at the State Convention by the elected delegates, or their duly qualified alternates, of local Posts, belonging to the State Department. All Posts shall be entitled to representation in proportion to their membership.

Sec. 4. Post representatives in the State Department shall be elected by local Posts in accordance with the provisions of the Constitution and By-Laws of each State Department.

Sec. 5. Par. 1. State Conventions shall be held annually or biennially at time and place designated by the previous Convention. In the event such decisions were not made at the previous Convention, the State Department shall designate the time and place for the State Convention, provided, however, that no State Convention may be held within thirty (30) days of a National Convention.

Sec. 5. Par. 2. Quorum at State Conventions shall consist of delegates from a majority of the Posts under the jurisdiction of that State Department.

Sec. 6. State Conventions shall have the authority to determine the amount of dues to be paid by every member of the Posts under its jurisdiction for the purpose of maintenance of the individual State Departments, provided, however, that the amount of annual dues which shall be due to the National Department for each member of this organization shall not be in any manner affected by the decisions of any State Convention.

ARTICLE VIII LOCAL POSTS

Sec. 1. Local Posts may be formed by any ten (10) eligible individuals by making application to the local State Department, and if there be no State Department, directly to the National Department. If the State Department approves, the application shall be forwarded to the National Department and a Charter shall be issued.

Sec. 2. Local Posts shall be subject to the jurisdiction of the National Department and the State Department, and any provisions of a State Department Constitution or a local Post Constitution conflicting with or contrary to the provisions of the National Constitution shall be null, void, and of no effect. The policies, activities and actions of the local Posts must never be at variance with those prescribed by the National Department.

Sec. 3. Election of officers in local Posts shall be held no later than September 30th, of the year in which the election is held.

Sec. 4. Par. 1. No Post shall disband or merge with another Post without proper authorization from its State Department or, if there be no State Department, from the National Department.

Sec. 4. Par. 2. In the event a Post is disbanded or its Charter duly revoked for cause, its Charter and such other official documents as the State or National Commander desires shall become the property of the State or National Department, whichever applies.

Sec. 4. Par. 3. If a Post becomes inactive, defined herein as not holding a Post meeting for six (6) successive months, the assets of said Post shall come under the control of the respective State Department. Said State Department shall then expeditiously determine whether said Post has been or should be disbanded.

Sec. 4. Par. 4. No Post shall dispose of any of its assets in contemplation of disbanding, burning or revocation of its charter. The respective State Department shall assume immediate control of said Post assets pending a State Department hearing regarding the intent of said Post. Any Post that disposes or contemplates disposing of a substantial part of its assets so as to materially weaken the existence of said Post for the purpose for which it was organized, immediately subjects said Post assets to the control of the State Department. The State Department shall hold a hearing in order to determine the intent of said Post, and all members of said Post shall be duly notified no later than 30 days prior of said hearing, the State Department may determine that said Post is to be disbanded or that its charter be duly revoked.

Sec. 4. Par. 5. The assets of a disbanded Post or a Post whose charter has been duly revoked shall become the property of the respective State Department, except that any money due the National Department shall first be paid from said assets, if any.

Sec. 5. Annual membership dues to local Posts shall be determined by the individual local Posts at the last meeting of the preceding fiscal year, provided, however, that the amount of annual dues which shall be due to the National Department and State Department for each member of the subject Post may not in any manner be altered or otherwise modified by any action of the subject Post.

ARTICLE IX FINANCES

Sec. 1. Par. 1. All finances of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., shall be under the supervision of the National Treasurer. Said Officer shall be responsible for keeping all necessary and proper records of all income and expenditures of the National Department.

ARTICLE X ELECTIONS, VOTING AND VACANCIES

Sec. 1. Par. 1. Preceding the National Convention, the National Commander shall appoint a Nomination and Balloting Committee of not less than four (4) persons who shall take charge of issuance of ballots as provided herein and collection of said ballots. Such Committee is also referred to as the Balloting Committee, and shall officially tabulate results of voting by totaling the ballots returned from each State Department. Such Committee shall make its report without delay and shall turn over all ballots and tally sheets to the Secretary of the Convention for permanent record purposes.

Sec. 1. Par. 2. Chairman of the Balloting Committee shall appoint Balloting Inspectors in a number sufficient for assignment of one (1) Inspector for each voting State Department. The Balloting Inspectors shall be the State Commander or Said Officer's designated Alternate from a State Department other than the one to which they are assigned as an Inspector. The Balloting Inspectors shall observe entirely the voting procedure within the voting State Department. They shall be responsible for delivery of voted ballots to the Balloting Committee.

Sec. 2. Par. 1. At a time appointed in the Convention Order of Business and/or the Rules of Procedure the Balloting Committee shall issue such official ballots to the Balloting Inspectors assigned to such voting State Department. Such official ballots shall be issued in the number of delegates reported in the last report of the Registration Committee, except that no more ballots may be issued than there are delegates present within such voting State Department delegation at the time balloting shall commence.

Sec. 2. Par. 2. Names of the candidates being voted upon shall appear printed legibly on a blackboard of sufficient size to be easily read by the seated delegates. Such blackboard shall be situated on the Chairman's platform or stage. Printed names of candidates shall be arranged in a single column and shall be consecutively numbered, beginning with number one (1).

Sec. 2. Par. 3 . Ballots should be marked secretly by each delegate by writing the number of the candidate of their choice on the delegate's own ballot. CODE OF REGULATIONS
POLISH LEGION OF AMERICAN VETERANS, U.S.A.

PURPOSE

The purpose of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. National Convention Corporation is to establish a corporate entity to arrange for the financing and the operation of the P.L.A.V., U.S.A., National Convention and to additionally provide continuity in planning such conventions. The National Convention Corporation although a legally separate entity, shall be under the jurisdiction of the National Department of the P.L.A.V., U.S.A. and shall generally adhere to the National Constitution and By-Laws.

MEMBERS

The membership of the National Convention Corporation shall include two (2) regular and active members of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A., who shall be elected to its Board of Directors by the National Convention for a term of four (4) years.

CLAUSE III BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sec. 1. Par. 1. The Board of Directors elected to serve under the Code of Regulations shall be elected by the Delegates at the National Convention. They shall be elected to serve terms of four (4) years. No Director shall be elected at the 2010 National Convention. One (1) Director shall be elected at each following National Convention and serve only one full four (4) year term in succession. This method of election of the Board of Elected Directors will insure the service of an experienced Director at all times.

Sec. 2. In addition to the elected members, who shall serve on the Board of Directors, the National Adjutant of the National Department shall be the Secretary of the National Convention Corporation and the National Commander of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. shall be ex-officio member of that Board. The National Commander shall at all times have the right to attend and participate in all meetings of the Board of Directors. The National Commander may defer action by the Board on a particular issue until it is resolved by the N.E.C.

Sec. 3. The Board of Directors shall hold their meetings in conjunction with the meetings of the National Executive Committee. The first meeting shall be held in conjunction with the first regular meeting of the N.E.C. following a National Convention. Special meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by the Chairman, or by the National Commander, provided that written notice of said meeting is sent to all members of that Board.

Sec. 4. The elected members of the Board of Directors, whenever requested to attend a meeting of the National Executive Committee by the National Commander and/or the N.E.C. shall attend such meeting as members of that body. Such Directors shall have a voice but no vote in matters pertaining to or pertinent to such N.E.C. Meetings.

Sec. 5. Any Elected Member of the Board of Directors may be removed from office upon two-thirds (2/3) vote of the National Executive Committee for such reasons as may be satisfactory to the N.E.C. Members being tried for removal from office shall have no vote. However, a Director being so tried may present evidence pertinent in their own defense.

Sec. 6. Whenever a vacancy shall occur in the Board of Directors by death, resignation, ineligibility or removal as provided in Sec. 5., or otherwise, the vacancy shall be filled by the N.E.C. The new member shall serve until the next National Convention, at which time; a Director shall be elected to complete the term.

Sec. 7. Par. 1. One (1) of the Directors shall constitute a quorum for all meetings of the Board whenever the National Adjutant and National Commander are present. The vote of a quorum of said Directors shall be conclusive as to matters passed upon by said Board.

Sec. 7. Par. 2. Proposals which are submitted in writing to such Directors by its Chairman, Treasurer, Secretary, National Commander, or the N.E.C. may be resolved by written reply.

Sec. 8. Par. 1. The Elected Members of the Board of Directors shall serve without compensation; however, the National Executive Committee may provide reasonable compensation, where an injustice may be evident. Elected Members of the Board of Directors shall, however, be allowed their reasonable authorized expenses incurred in travel and otherwise in pursuit of N.C.C. business; and it shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to pass and approve or disapprove vouchers for payment of such expenses, according to such rules and procedures as it may have established.

Sec. 8. Par. 2. All compensation and/or expenses as provided for in these regulations shall be subject to review, approval or rejection by the National Executive Committee.

Sec. 9. Par. 1. Past National Commanders and Past National Presidents of the Ladies Auxiliary, if actually present at the National Convention, shall be entitled to payment of mandate fees, paid from the funds acquired by the National Convention Corporation.

CLAUSE IV OFFICERS

Sec. 1. The officers of the National Convention Corporation (N.C.C.) shall consist of a President, Secretary and Treasurer. Only those Elected Directors can serve as President and Treasurer of the Corporation. Their term of office is two years. The officers shall be elected by a majority vote of the four (4) members at the meeting of the Board of Directors next following a National Convention.

Sec. 2. In case of death, resignation, ineligibility or removal of any Elected Director for cause, the National Executive Committee shall elect their successor for the un-expired term.

Sec. 3. Par. 1. The President, as the Executive Officer of the National Convention Corporation, shall act as the Chairman of the Board of Directors with the usual duties, authority and responsibility of such office. Said Officer's signature along with that of the Treasurer, are required on each corporate check. Said Officer is the director and manager of the business and administrative affairs of the Corporation. Said Officer shall with the consent and approval of the Board of Directors have the following authority and duties: lease office space, purchase supplies, arrange for travel of Directors, employ and supervise required personnel, and arrange for such incidental services as may be deemed necessary to conduct the business affairs of the Corporation.

Sec. 3. Par. 2. The Treasurer shall maintain an accurate account of finances of the N.C.C. Said Officer shall be bonded by a good and solvent bonding company for twice the optimum amount of money that may be on deposit in the Corporate accounts. Said Officer shall be one of the signers of all checks drawn on all Corporate Accounts. Said Officer shall prepare checks and vouchers on order of the President. Said Officer shall perform such other duties as are usual and incidental to such office.

Sec. 3. Par. 3. The Secretary shall keep a complete record of the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors.

Sec. 3. Par. 4. Under no circumstances shall any of the Corporate Officers sign any checks or vouchers in blank.

Sec. 4. The National Convention Corporation shall bond all its officers as named in Section 1 of this Article. Such bond shall be for a reasonable amount and be filed with the National Treasurer of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.

CLAUSE V AUTHORITY FOR CONTRACTS

Sec. 1. The making of all contracts for fund raising and for other purposes provided for in the Certificate of Incorporation of the National Convention Corporation of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. is in the discretion of the Board of Directors, provided that reasonable legal advice shall have been consulted concerning each transaction.

Sec. 2. All such contracts shall be entered into in the name of the National Convention Corporation of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. They shall be authenticated with the signature of the President of the Board of Directors, after having been duly approved by the said Board of Directors. Proposals and negotiations concerning proposed contracts, and copies of the said contracts shall be submitted to the Board of Directors by Certified Mail - Return Receipt Requested and their action thereon shall be transmitted to the Secretary in writing. Copies of Executed Contracts shall be forwarded to the National Commander, National Treasurer National Adjutant and National Membership Director within thirty (30) days of execution thereof.

Sec. 3. Contracts proposed to extend over more than one National Convention must have the approval of the National Executive Committee.

CLAUSE VI DUTIES OF THE BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Sec. 1. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors:

1. To keep complete records of minutes of meetings and accounts in permanently bound record books. A written report of the minutes of all meetings of the Board of Directors shall be submitted to the National Commander immediately following all such meetings.
2. To supervise all officers and agents of the Corporation and to require proper performance of their duties.

3. To designate a depository, or depositories, for the funds and securities, and other properties of the Corporation. All such funds, securities and other properties of the N.C.C. shall be held in trust for and shall at all times be the property of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A.
4. To transfer all surplus funds to the National Treasury of the Polish Legion of American Veterans, U.S.A. except as provided for in Clause VII, Section 5, of this Code of Regulations.
5. The National Executive Committee shall determine the kinds and classes of securities and properties in which the funds of the Corporation shall be invested, provided said investment complies with the laws of the State in which such funds are located. It shall be the duty of the Board of Directors to keep the National Executive Committee duly informed concerning the funds of the Corporation by submitting a written report thereon to the N.E.C. each time that body meets in regularly convened executive sessions.
6. To hold and exercise all the powers and rights conferred upon the Directors of a Corporation generally by the laws of the United States of America and the States in which such Corporations shall operate.
7. To enter into contracts directly related to the operation of a National Convention or other National Conferences as directed by the N.E.C.; to investigate and to recommend Convention sites; to arrange for the preparation and printing of Convention programs; and to purchase and conserve all materials as may be required by the National Convention and/or other National Conference. "Other National Conference" as stated herein shall not be construed to include National Executive Committee Meetings.
8. To make such expenditures and to enter into such agreements as may be necessary in its discretion to fulfill the purposes outlined in the Certificate of Incorporation.
9. To employ such persons as it deems necessary to carry out the purposes herein, and as set forth in the Certificate of Incorporation. Employment of all such persons and the salaries to be paid such persons shall be subject to the approval of the National Executive Committee.
10. To provide for adequate bonding of not only the Board of Directors, but also of such agents as necessary; to otherwise protect the funds of the Corporation.
11. To make written, full complete reports of its activities and accounts to the National Commander and the National Executive Committee as provided for in these regulations or as may be required by the National Executive Committee.
12. To advise in writing and orally, when convenient, the Commander of a Department hosting a National Convention, and/or the local Convention Committee in all matters pertinent to that forthcoming Convention.
13. To advise, in writing, the National Department of the Ladies Auxiliary, P.L.A.V., U.S.A. in all matters pertinent to the Ladies Auxiliary in regards to P.L.A.V., U.S.A. National Conventions.

Sec. 2. It shall be the duty of the National Executive Committee to suspend all payments of compensations and/or expenses to the Board of Directors or members thereof unless all the duties enumerated in Section 1 of this Clause are satisfactorily performed.

Sec. 3. In the event the N.C.C. Board of Directors fails to carry out its duties and responsibilities in compliance with this Code of Regulations as determined by the National Executive Committee, it shall be mandatory for the National Commander and/or the N.E.C. to act at once to suspend the activities of such Board, and to carry out the duties herein described in place of such Board.

CLAUSE VII POLICY

Sec. 1. The P.L.A.V., U.S.A. National Convention Corporation, for all purposes of policy, shall be a subsidiary of the National Department of the P.L.A.V., U.S.A. as referred to in the National Constitution, P.L.A.V., U.S.A. - Article IV, Section 6, and shall be subject to the provisions of said Article.

Sec. 2. It shall be the policy of the Directors of the N.C.C. to limit the travel and expenses of the Elected Directors insofar as possible to one (1) visit to a convention site city prior to any National Convention. Inspection of premises, final negotiations, and executions of contracts shall be the purpose of such visit. Such visit shall be limited to two (2) Elected Directors unless the urgency of the situation requires otherwise.

Sec. 3. It shall be the policy of the Elected Directors of the N.C.C. to do all preliminary negotiating with hotels, suppliers, and other suppliers of required services through the United States Mails in an effort to minimize expenses. Telephone expenses should be minimal.

Sec. 4. In an effort to minimize costs to the P.L.A.V., U.S.A., the Board of Directors of the N.C.C. shall hold their meetings in conjunction with the meetings of the National Executive Committee, as set forth in this Code of Regulations.

Sec. 5. All funds acquired by the Convention Corporation shall be deposited to its account and expended or invested as directed by the National Executive Committee. The amount of operating funds for the National Convention Corporation shall be determined by the National Executive Committee.

Sec. 6. At the first regular National Executive Committee Meeting following a National Convention, the National Convention Corporation shall submit a budget covering N.C.C. operations for the ensuing two year period. Such budget shall take effect immediately upon approval by the National Executive Committee.

Sec. 7. All activities of the P.L.A.V., U.S.A. National Convention Corporation shall be under the supervision, direction and control of the Board of Directors except as herein otherwise provided.

Sec. 8. Reference herein to the masculine shall include the feminine.
